APPLICATION FOR: Automated Aquatics Leadership Scholarship

T: 780-415-1755 | F: 780-427-9334 | experts@lifesaving.org | www.lifesaving.org

Through generous support from Automated Aquatics Canada Ltd., the Society is able to offer the annual Automated Aquatics Leadership Scholarship.

The Lifesaving Society will award up to four (4) leadership scholarships each year. These scholarships (valued at $250 each) are to be used by the recipients to advance their leadership capacity in delivering Lifesaving Society education and training programs in Alberta and the Northwest Territories.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Nominees must be holders of a current Lifesaving Society leadership certification(s) and be a member in good standing. Applicants must be actively employed either part-time or full-time by an Alberta or Northwest Territories affiliate. Applicants must demonstrate a commitment to their community and desire to build their Lifesaving Society leadership capacity.

APPLICATION & SELECTION PROCESS

Leadership Scholarships will be administered by the Lifesaving Society Alberta and Northwest Territories.

Applicants must submit an application outlining Lifesaving Society experience and provide contact information for one work reference and one personal reference. Volunteer involvement in the community will be considered an asset. Applications must be received by June 10th, 2022 at 4:30 p.m.

Scholarships will be awarded at the Lifesaving Society Annual General Meeting and Branch Recognition Awards in June of each year.

PAYMENT OF SCHOLARSHIP

Payment of the scholarship occurs after participation in a Lifesaving Society leadership program or training event. Scholarship recipients may submit receipts to a maximum of $250.00. Scholarships must be used within two (2) years. Reimbursable costs include: registration, travel and accommodation.
