Lifejacket Loaner Station End of Season Call and Request for End of Season Inventory Completion

Good afternoon,

On behalf of the Lifesaving Society, we want to wish everyone a wonderful end of summer wrap up! There were some unique challenges this year with the constant change of restrictions, but we wanted to share our gratitude with everyone as we got through it together.

Our end of season call, scheduled for September 14 at 1:00 PM, is an opportunity to discuss how the season went. We encourage everyone to join us and connect, share best practices and discuss challenges we've faced this year.

If there are individuals who are changing positions in the fall, you are still welcome to be a part of the call or you can send a different representative.

The call will take place on ZOOM:
