

Lone Prairie Camp (LPC) is a Christian camp on Red Deer Lake near Camrose in Alberta. We are committed to facilitating life-changing encounters with the Triune God in an accessible environment distinct from that of normal day-to-day experience.

We are looking for a NLS certified lifeguard who could partner with us in building God's kingdom here on Earth, one camper at a time.

Duties

- Know and implement all safety policies and procedures down at the waterfront
- Organizes and manages staff down at the waterfront
- Spiritual guidance including but not limited to praying with campers and staff, guiding discussion during chapel small groups, incorporating spiritual lessons throughout the day including during program activities, sharing at campfire and assisting with nightly cabin devotionals and morning staff devotionals. Each staff member (not including CLTs) should have a personal check-in with a program staff member each week. Each program staff member should have a personal check-in with either the Program Director or Camp Director each week.
- Seeks out ways to improve activities down at the waterfront while ensuring the safety of all those involved
- Assist with planning/organizing beach games
- Active participation in camp activities
- Attends chapel & campfire
- Maintain "camper-focus" with staff
- Assist with rentals as needed
- Actively take part in the camp follow-up program by way of writing, visiting (where possible) and praying for campers. Invite unchurched campers near your church to its fall kick-off event, wear your LPC staff shirt to the event & actively seek out any campers who come.
- Recognizing that flexibility is an important aspect of ministry, the staff member will assist as possible in other areas while maintaining a focus on his/her specific responsibilities
